

LIBERTY LOAN MEETINGS SPEED UP CAMPAIGN OVER THE CITY

WAR LOAN TOTAL
HERE IS SENT UP
TO $257,874,650

Drive for Subscriptions by Small Investors Taken on New Vigin

The quota which was passed to-day by the New York City in the six days of the Liberty Loan, the largest total of new subscriptions announced by the committee being $1,274,850. While many of the men who took large subscriptions are now back, principally to New York, subscribers of 1 per cent deposit necessary when an order for bonds is filed with the Federal Reserve Bank, they point out that small investors must be heard from in greater numbers from now on if the maximum of $1,800,000,000 expected from the district is to be realized.

Every one engaged in the work of directing the gathering of the war fund is confident that several hundred thousand of the $1,000 and $500 bond buyers will be found on the long roll of honor when the campaign closes.

The hope of spreading the loan among 3,000,000 subscribers in this district, almost twice as many as participated in the first loan, will be realized if extensive advertising and endless urging on the part of thousands of speakers throughout the district is as effective as preliminary reports indicate it will be. Every message that reaches headquarters from the army of volunteer salesmen now canvassing the district shows that the workers of all ages are preparing to get behind their Government.

Some of the large subscriptions that came in to-day were: Bowery Savings Bank, $2,000,000; Missouri Pacific Railroad Company, $1,000,000; Seaman's Savings Bank, $1,000,000; Fifth Avenue Bank, $65,550; Cone Export and Commission Company, $400,000; Czarnikow Rionda Company, $350,000; Well & Co., $60,000; William D. Guthrie, $50,000.

While New York and the other cities of the district are being urged to "speed up," Clark's Mill, a town of 1,000 inhabitants, has oversubscribed its allotment and is now setting itself to take a share of the next loan. The Loan Committee expected $12,000 from Clark's Mill, but the patriotic little hamlet sent along subscriptions for $16,000 worth of the bonds. Lima, N. Y., another village about the same size, reports a single subscription of $10,000.

PRESERVE IDEALS OF LIBERTY, MERRILL URGES.

Edwin G. Merrill, President of the Union Trust Company, said to-day that the urgent need of subscribing to the new loan should be apparent to every American who reads the war news.

"If the world should become subject to the domination of Germany," said Mr. Merrill, "the ideals of liberty, as Americans know them, would vanish from the earth. To help in preventing this the United States must take a heavy share of the burden which England and France have carried for three years, and money must be forthcoming in unlimited amounts."

The military band from Fort Totten furnished music at the noonday meeting at the Liberty Bank in Madison Square, following which the bond saleswomen of the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee went through the crowd getting subscriptions. Mrs. Jacob Rile was the prin-

Boy Scouts Sell Liberty Bond to Meadow.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Although the Boy Scout campaign in behalf of the second Liberty Loan sale will not begin officially until Saturday, two Spokane Scouts already have made a start. While in Meadow, Wash., on tour, two Scouts approached a boy with a Liberty Bond application blank. If you just sign this before the crowd to come, he said, it's done, it would help a lot. Mr. Smith, who sold "Gets-It," the Secretary replied, "Get further, I'll buy a bond."

Connecticut Short 1,000,000 Bushels on Potato Crop.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 10.—Although Connecticut's potato crop this year is 2,000,000 bushels, it still falls short of the State's requirements by a million bushels, furnishing an average of 1,000,000 bushels. Whereas the State's quota is 1,000,000 bushels, the amount needed to pay for "Gets-It" at any price, or on cost of receipt price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Advt.

Robbery Suspect Fled Pawnshop as Detective Brings Back at Own Expense Man He Lost.

Detective Thomas Donohue of the Central Office, a veteran sleuth, was one of the first to congratulate Detective Joseph Fitzpatrick at Headquarters this morning when Fitzpatrick produced in the lineup one specimen, a prisoner who got away from him on Oct. 1. Within two hours Donohue had lost a prisoner and now faces suspension and an experience like that of Fitzpatrick, who was compelled to go out and get the man who escaped from him at his own expense on his own time.

A German subject who has taken out his first citizenship papers and who is anxious to invest our country in the interest of the war cause. The committee points out that men who have not yet been drafted, or those too old to join the colors, can render patriotic service in this way.

"I want to help the Government and all I can, but my money is in German banks and asked the Liberty Loan Committee to help him out of his dilemma. He says all his efforts to have his savings, amounting to several thousand dollars, transferred to this country have failed."
